Bible Readings for today:

Amos 5. 6-7, 10-15

The prophet Amos spoke out against the corruption he saw all around him, and urged people to follow the Law of God.

Hebrews 4. 12 -16

Jesus, the incarnate Word of God, is a living example of how it is possible to resist the powers of evil.

Alleluia, Alleluia

Welcome with meekness the implanted word that has the power to save your souls.

Alleluia.

Mark 10. 17 - 31

Being a true follower of Jesus involves more than living a just and honest life. He demands a sacrificial way of life.

All those in the care of our local nursing homes, and all those in our hearts & minds.

The Departed: Stanley Michael Royle, priest

& all who mourn their passing.

Those whose years' mind occur at this time:

Response for the Intercessions:

Your will be done:

On earth as in heaven .

“Around the Spire” The October edition is out today; please make sure you take a copy for yourself, and at least one more to give away! Many thanks to those who help to deliver the magazine around the parish. Almost all of the Sept copies went out - that's good news; your editor hates throwing old copies away!

Hint: Is there a house near you that is changing hands? Please drop a copy of the mag in for the new neighbours!

Notes for the November issue - to Fr Hugh by TODAY please.

Baptism Team: The PCC have agreed to set up a Team to share with the clergy in building links between our congregation & those who come to us for Baptism. If you feel you could help with this, please contact one of the clergy, or Val Harris, or Ann Bridges, who will be acting as co-ordinators of the group.

A Message from Di Allen: “A reminder that now is the time to fill our Samaritans Purse shoe-boxes! (If you have not already started!). Please have a word with me about what to include (and also ask for a box and / or a label if needed). Deadline date:

11th November. Thank you. Di.”
